2 INTRODUCTION

2.1 Purposes and Objectives:

The purpose of this policy is to specify the requirements for the different types of leave and absence listed in Appendix A, which are available to employees in accordance with the employment rules and regulations of the countries Inspire Holding is operating in.

The objectives of this policy are to ensure:

- Inspire Holding's commitment to provide the opportunity for employees to work in a family friendly environment and balance their work life commitments.

- Compliance with the employment regulations of each country where Inspire Holding provides its service.

- Employees at all levels and in each country are aware of their leave and absence

entitlements, and responsibility for adhering to these entitlements.

- The promotion of a safe and healthy workplace at Inspire Holding.

2.2 Scope:

This policy applies to all employees and all sites where Inspire Holding delivers its services and any clients' sites where Inspire Holding employees are assigned to work.

3 THE NEED

Inspire Holding needs to meet its legal and professional obligations and satisfy the requirements of national and international standards and legislation. The organization aims to standardize its approach to its employees' Leave and Absence to safeguard its resources, business, and assets.

This Policy will ensure a consistent approach to the implementation of the appropriate Leave and Absence governance to safeguard the provision services to its customers.

4 ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Inspire Leadership

The CEO is the legal owner of the Leave and Absence Policy and has the overall responsibility for ensuring that Inspire Holding has effective arrangements to manage the Leave and Absence rules.

The Responsibility of managing the Leave and Absence can be delegated as appropriate to the Head of HR Department who will implement this policy and provide the necessary assurance of successful implementation to the Board of Directors.

IH_CORP_056_ILeave_and_Absence_Policy_and_Guidelines_V5.9 Page 5 of 17

Heads of Governances

The chosen Senior Officer is responsible for developing, coordinating, and managing the implementation of this policy across the organization on behalf of the CEO and the Board of Directors

Heads of Human Resources

The Head of HR is the chosen Senior Officer responsible for the implementation of the scope of this policy across all Departments and ensuring employees understand the Leave and Absence rules and entitlements.

5 POLICY DETAILS:

General Guidelines:

- The annual leave entitlement starts on the first day of; and ends on the last day of Inspire Holding fiscal year, which starts on January 1st and ends December 31st.
- All Inspire Holding employees must submit their leaves or absence on the Inspire Portal.
- Annual leave requests should be submitted at least two weeks prior to the starting date of the planned leave. This will enable the line manager to manage the workflow with their team members.

Other types of leave need to be submitted or notified to the line manager at the earliest opportunity.

6 LEAVES AND ABSENCE LAW FOR EACH COUNTRY:

The section below; “Leave Breakdown by Country” explains the leave entitlement in accordance with the labor law of each country where Inspire Holding has offices and provides its service. Each member of staff should adhere to the leave and absence entitlement of the country he or she was appointed or seconded to.

In some cases, a member of staff may be appointed in one country and assigned to work in another country for a specific period. In such cases, his or her leave and absence entitlement will be based on the rules of that country for the duration of his or her secondment.

- Employees are eligible to have 1.17

Working Days annual leave per month of service if they are entitled to 14 working days annual leave.

- When a five-day annual leave is taken between two weekends or a public holiday fall within these five days, then ONE weekend (2 days) from the two weekends (4 days) will be counted as annual leave in the 30 calendar days calculation.

If applied leave falls within public Holiday,

ONE weekend

will still be counted as part of the leave of the 30 calendar days calculation.
